COUP BY POLES FEAR OF BERLIN
Plot to Beat Plebiscite Alleged by German Papers.

(Washington Herald Public Ledger Service, Special Cable Dispatch.)
Berlin, Aug. 22.—Considerable anxiety is being manifested over Polish attacks on Silesian border villages and reported engagements between Polish regulars and Silesian miners.

The German government is taking the attitude that the Poles planned a movement into this region, fearing a plebiscite would decide against them as it did in East Prussia, and is sustained in its view by the Algemeine Zeitung. This paper declares that during a raid at Katowitz secret documents were found proving that Poles engineered the movement in order to occupy Upper Silesia before a plebiscite was held.

Authorities here state that for the moment Germany has retired from the scene and is leaving the Interior Commission to restore order and punish offenders. However, the atmosphere in Germany proper is said to be one of great tension, and it is expected that reports of armed conflicts threaten to have a repercussion among armed factions here who only are awaiting an occasion to strike.

Crandall's Metropolitan—Alice Lake
In "The Mist Wife."

Alice Lake makes sure her claim to distinction both as a skillful deft comedienne and as a particularly delineator of the more profound elements of emotional drama in "The Mist Wife," the screen version of the novel by Mrs. Henry James.

THEATER GETS BANK SESSION
American Association Gathering Arranged for October in Capital.
COMMITTEES PICKED
District President Harper Announces Arrangements for Event.

Col. Robert N. Harper, president of the District Bankers Association, has announced that the Palace Theater will be the convention coliseum for the sessions of the American Bankers Association here October 18-22. This will be the first time this theater has ever housed a national convention.

Reservations have already been made for more than 1,200 guests, and additional requests are being received each week.

Entertainment Planned.
The committee in charge of entertaining the throng of visiting bankers has planned an excursion to Mount Vernon. Other entertainment will include golf at Washington's country clubs, afternoon reception at some of the city's show places, and the homes of C. C. Glover, Charles J. Bell, Charles I. Corby and others, and theater parties and formal entertainments at the Willard.

Harry V. Haynes, chairman of the committee, and George O. Vass, assistant, are giving considerable attention to affording Washington's guests ample opportunity to see the sights of the Capital.

Committees Named.
The following additional committees have been appointed by Col. Harper:

Committee on American Institute of Banking.—C. D. Boyer, chairman; N. E. Towson, vice-chairman; P. J. Mallory, J. J. Roberts, A. N. Schroeder, J. V. Chaney and W. A. Dyer.

Committee on Automobiles.—John M. Riordan, chairman; Victor Decker, vice-chairman; Robert S. Stuns, Frank Owings and Albert S. Gately.

Committee on Badges.—W. T. Gallaher, chairman; Louis C. Williams, vice-chairman; John L. Fugitt, W. McK. Stowell and L. M. Thayer.

Chesapeake Beach.
Salt water bathing held first place in popularity yesterday among the thousands who spent the day at Chesapeake Beach. Fishing is still excellent and hundreds lined the half-mile steamer pier while others tried their luck at crabbing.

Colonial Beach.
Many Washingtonians enjoyed the week-end at Colonial Beach and enjoyed the salt water bathing, fishing, crabbing, dancing and the other outdoor amusements. The steamer pier, Seventh Street Wharf, will return this evening at 5. Another trip will be made to Colonial Beach Thursday, leaving Seventh Street Wharf at the same hour and returning the same way. The Steamer St. John will leave the pier at 10 and will return the latter part of this week, resuming the regular schedule to Colonial Beach, and the forty-mile moonlight sail. Until the St. John returns, the moonlight trips are discontinued.

Great Falls Park.
A large crowd of pleasure seekers visited beautiful Great Falls Park yesterday and enjoyed the many outdoor attractions as well as the concerts by the Ladies' Orchestra. All this week there will be dancing in the large pavilion overlooking the falls.

New Lives in Royal Suite.
He retired from the trade and joined the Baccarat Club at Englewood, where he won $22,000 before the club was closed by a scandalized Parliament. He is now living the imperial suite in the Royal Hotel and is estimated to have won a total of $8,000,000 without a sign of his luck changing.

Other heavy winners include Carlos Vagiano, the millionaire ship owner, whose record is $200,000 won at a single sitting.

YANKS CROWD FRENCH RESORT
Deauville, Society 'Retreat,' Mecca for Hundreds of Wealthy Americans.
(By Universal Service.)
Deauville, France, Aug. 22.—"Deauville has degenerated into an international exposition of the feminine figure and the male pocket-book."

The words were uttered by Mrs. Herman Oelrichs and echoed by hundreds of other Americans of wealth and leisure who have hitherto injected the most brilliant life into Deauville's season, but this year have been fastidious and eccentric innovations from the new rich of the world who have flocked in, until the epithet "modern Babylon" applied by Maurice Maeterlinck is more than justified.

Paris Paper Criticizes.
"Gambling, drinking and tangoing have become the very existence of the world's richest people congregated in Deauville," says the Paris satiric weekly Cri d'Paris.

The most picturesque figure in the Casino is the Syrian, Riri Khan, who several months ago was a humble carpet seller in the Paris streets but who subsequently won $3,000,000 in one night. His romance is asserted to be the most extraordinary on record. Coming to France from India, he sold five carpets, realizing 1,000 francs. He immediately placed the entire sum on Meddiesome Maid, A. K. M. Camber's horse at the Long Champs races and won at the odds of eleven to one.

Many Americans Remain.
Although many Americans, disgusted with the orgy of fashion display and gambling, have left Deauville, hundreds remain.

These include Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Macomber, Mr. and Mrs. Berry Wall, Charles Clark, Owen Moore, Julian Newman, R. L. Ellis, the Princess Murat, Mrs. J. H. Coffelt, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Dreshfield, Mrs. George Frick, Mrs. Peter Larsen, Mrs. Frederick Irving Mosher, Milton Frank, Mrs. Frances Mitchell and Irving Berlin.

TALKING POLITICS COSTS NEGRO $130
James Washington, colored, of Florence, S. C., at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon had $130. At 2:35 he didn't have it.

Washington met two congenial colored strangers at Second street and California avenue. They asked him to change a $20 bill. Washington obliged them. The three discussed politics and the party then broke up. Then Washington stuck his hand deep down into an empty pocket.

Irish Leaders' Homes Raided.
Dublin, Aug. 22.—Police today raided the homes of Arthur Griffiths, Sinn Féin leader, and William O'Brien, secretary of the Irish Labor party, seizing a number of documents.

MARYLAND FARMER BUYS CHAMPION COW
Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 22.—The highest-priced cow ever sold in Lancaster County was purchased yesterday for $8,000 by H. C. Eberly, of Maryland, who selected the most valuable animal in the herd of Moisteins on the farms of H. C. Reinhold, of East Petersburg.

The cow, which recently produced thirty-eight pounds of butter in seven days, was bred from the best Holstein stock in America and had not been long in Mr. Reinhold's possession. He has also sold a cow to Dr. C. M. Beger, of Parkersburg, W. Va., for $1,000.

Folly Theater.
There is an abundance of variety and quality in the "Joy Riders," which opened a week's engagement at the Folly Theater yesterday. The story is a rattling comedy in itself. The acting, music and scenery were greatly responsible for the success of the performance.

Billy Mossey headed the cast in his famous role of "Noodles," while George Adams proved himself a capable foil. Louise Pearson headed the feminine contingent.

Miss Billy Kimer, who is a favorite among Washington burlesquers, danced and sang to the delight of her audience. Others responsible for the success of the show are Grace Burnside, George Adams, Irvin Shaffer, James Pick and Charles Pendley.
